

| Project: Cutts Road, Curry Moor – Concrete Embankment |  |                                      |                                   |
|---|--|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Status:   | Ongoing<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>   | Complete<input type="checkbox"/> | Other<input type="checkbox"/> |
| Summary:  | Construction of a reinforced concrete embankment to support the existing road  |                                      |                                   |
| Sector:   | Civil Engineering  |                                      |                                   |
| Services:   | Complete groundworks and drainage package to the site including external works.  |                                      |                                   |
| Client:   | Kier Construction Ltd  |                                      |                                   |
| Main Contractor:                                      | The Environment Agency   |                                      |                                   |
| Start Date:   | May 2024   |                                      |                                   |
| Location:   | East Lyng, Somerset  |                                      |                                   |
| Value:  | £300,000.00  |                                      |                                   |
| Scope of Works:                                       | Piled foundations, storm drainage, reinforcement, complex temporary works. External works including, earthworks, retaining walls, kerbs, paving and surfacing. |                                      |                                   |

